

ONGC PUBLIC SCHOOL NERAVY - KARAIKAL

Freedom is not to be free from any ruler however it is to be free from all the foundations whether they are physical, social, political, psychological or intellectual Republic Day was celebrated by the staff and students of ONGC Public School with patriotic fervour. Our correspondent Shri. KANNAN ji presided over the function.

Shri. C. I SEBASTIAN, GGM – Logistics & Asset Support Manager, ONGC Cauvery Asset., Karaikal, was the chief guest. He received a warm welcome from our reception team and our school band. He hoisted the national flag and paid floral tribute to the portrait of Bharatha Matha and received honour from NCC, Scouts and guides and NSS students through march past.

Invocation song 'Arivilae Thelivu' and 'Bharatha Matha' songs were sung by school choir. Selvi.Kashvi Singh of VIII C welcomed the gathering on this great occasion and a welcome dance was performed by the damsels of OPS.

The program was hosted by Mrs. Kirubalakshmi & Mrs. Sujitha. Our Chief Guest of the day threw light on various tasks to be undertaken by the present students who are the future citizens of the country. Importance in developing the nation and its honour was clearly mentioned. He also insisted what you do for the country is more important than what the country does for oneself.

After the speech, spectacular performances like Bharathanatyam, Sanskrit patriotic song, Patriotic drama portraying the significance of the freedom fighter the great KUYILI, Fusion dance, Patriotic song by school choir, Instrumental Music by school band were wonderfully presented. The programme concluded with vote of thanks by Selvi. Srisai Prajnya VIII B followed by Vandemataram.

The 74th Republic Day was celebrated in all its solemnity and grandeur by OPS on the school premises on January 26. An air of patriotic fervour permeated the atmosphere. Our School expressed their spirit of unity and secularism on the occasion of 74th Republic Day celebrations. The celebration reminded the students of the sacrifices made by the freedom fighters.

Let us see a dream at this republic day; One Nation, One Vision, and One Identity.
